

made me reflect and question myself on my knowledge), to the workshop of personal development and theory of education. I follow this programme with enthusiasm, knowing that it is for the better service to the children and youths that the Lord brings into my life.

Thanks to my Formator, I continue growing in order to become a person freer from my own wounds and from my false ideas about myself. Actually, we are preparing for a time of retreat to continue discerning if the Lord is calling me to live a Mennaisian life at the service of the children and youths.

Finally, I would like to mention that I am happy that the Lord has sent me to Culiprán, and I am pleased with the vocational training I am going through with Lord.

David Gonzalez, Postulant

Prayer for the Vocations

Jesus, Son of God,

in whom resides the plenitude of the divinity, You call all the baptized «to go ahead».

Implant in the heart of the youth the desire to be the witnesses of the strength of your love in the world of today.

Fill them with your Spirit of strength and prudence, so that they may be able to discover the full truth of themselves and their own vocation.

Our Savior,

sent by the Father to reveal his merciful love, give to your Church the gift of youths, ready to advance to be among their brothers a manifestation of your presence that renovates and saves.

Holy Virgin, Mother of the Redeemer, assured guide on the road to God and the neighbor, You have kept his words in the intimacy of your heart,

sustain through your maternal intercession the families and the ecclesial communities,

so that they may help the adolescents and youths to answer generously to the call of the Lord.

Amen.

