

North Canton, Oh. The Barrette Business Center/ the Brother Robert Francoeur Conference Center was dedicated on Feb. 16. Msgr. L. Gaetano blessed the building. A luncheon seating over 200 guests was followed by a few speeches. WU President Richard Jusseaume served as emcee. Brother Joseph Power spoke about Msgr. Barrette and his contribution to Walsh. Brother Robert spoke on his own behalf: "The building inspires the admiration of all that have had the opportunity of visiting it." Already its use by groups has been extraordinary.

Biddeford, Me. At St. Andre's Home, Brother Lionel Morneau has accepted his physical condition: he has a very weak heart and needs oxygen-breathing apparatus working at the highest level. His spirit is upbeat and he is very receptive to all visitors. By contrast Brother Edgar St Pierre is fading away graciously, recognizing only Brother James Lacasse. He paces the hallway very slowly and falls down occasionally due to his weak condition.

Plattsburgh, N.Y. The community enjoyed the visits of Rev. Lawrence Deno and Rev. Joseph Elliott. On separate occasions they joined the community for evening prayer followed by a short social and evening meal. The community also enjoyed a visit from two brothers from the Philipsburg, P.Q. community, Brothers George Gouron and Yvon Roy. They went snowshoeing at Paul Smith's and stayed overnight before returning to their community.
